

Langdale Valley

- Agro-pastoral landscape
- Aesthetic appreciation
- Conservation

1. Pike of Stickle
2. Intakes above Pye Howe (owned by National Trust)
3. Fell Foot Farm (owned by National Trust)
4. Walthwaite (owned by National Trust)
5. The Bield (owned by National Trust)
6. Robinson Place (owned by National Trust)
7. Eiterwater slate quarry
8. Blea Tarn (owned by National Trust)
9. Eltermere Hotel (owned by National Trust)
10. High Close (owned by National Trust)
11. Stool End and Wall End (owned by National Trust)
12. Busk Farm (owned by National Trust)

EXAMPLES OF KEY ATTRIBUTES: As shown on the Langdale illustrative map

NO. 1 Pike of Stickle (location of Neolithic stone axe factories)

NO. 2 Intakes above Pye Howe (owned by National Trust)

NO. 3 Fell Foot Farm (owned by National Trust)

NO. 4 Walthwaite Farm

NO. 5 The Bield (owned by National Trust)

NO. 6 Robinson Place (owned by National Trust)

NO. 7 Elterwater slate quarry

NO. 8 Blea Tarn (owned by National Trust)

NO. 9 Eltermere Hotel

NO. 10 High Close (Youth Hostel, owned by National Trust)

NO. 11 Stool End and Wall End farms (owned by National Trust)

NO. 12 Busk Farm (owned by National Trust)