

Eskdale Valley

- Agro-pastoral landscape
- Aesthetic appreciation
- Conservation
- Nominated Property boundary

1. Earthwork remains of medieval farmstead and field system at Great Grassoms
2. Ravenglass Roman fort and bath house (bath house managed by English Heritage)
3. Hardknott Roman fort (owned by National Trust)
4. Medieval boundary, Great Moss (owned by National Trust)
5. The Eskdale corn mill at Boot (owned by Eskdale Mill and Heritage Trust)
6. Peat huts above Boot, Eskdale
7. Prehistoric stone circles on Eskdale Moor (owned by National Trust)
8. Farm at Brotherilkeld (owned by National Trust)
9. Dalegarth Hall
10. Gatehouse
11. Muncaster Castle and garden
12. Landscape protected from conifer planting through the 1936 agreement with the Forestry Commission (owned by National Trust)

EXAMPLES OF KEY ATTRIBUTES: As shown on the Eskdale illustrative map

NO. 1 Earthwork remains of medieval farmstead and field system at Great Grassoms

NO. 2 Ravenglass Roman fort and bath house (bath house managed by English Heritage)

NO. 8 Farm at Brotherikeld (owned by National Trust)

NO. 9 Dalegarth Hall

NO. 4 Medieval boundary, Great Moss (owned by National Trust)

NO. 3 Hardknott Roman fort (owned by National Trust)

NO. 10 Gatehouse (villa)

NO. 5 The Eskdale corn mill at Boot (owned by Eskdale Mill and Heritage Trust)

NO. 11 Muncaster Castle and Garden

NO. 12 Landscape protected from conifer planting through the 1936 agreement with the Forestry Commission (owned by National Trust)

NO. 6 Peat huts above Boot, Eskdale

NO. 7 Prehistoric stone circles on Eskdale Moor (owned by National Trust)