

Lake District National Park

Farming in Protected Landscapes

year four projects

Over £2m

funding for year four FiPL projects

285 farmers participated

Over £2.1m

funding for repairing 18 traditional farm buildings, which are part of the agricultural heritage

- Nature
- Climate
- People
- Place

11

projects supporting traditional farming breeds

Including fell ponies and Herdwick sheep.

26

farm clusters supported

Groups of farmers who have worked collectively on a project which has received FiPL funding.

9,642

metres of access improvements.

Including new public access, new recycled plastic boardwalks, surface improvements and stiles replaced with gates.

£118,525

funding for wetland creation and restoration projects

£141,949

funding educational projects

Including training farmers to host school trips.

£180,780

spent helping recovery of threatened species

Including Curlews and Natterjack Toads.

21

agricultural soil health projects

Measuring soil health, restoring peatland, adopting new grazing techniques.

53

projects supporting resilient and nature-friendly farm businesses

Farming in Protected Landscapes funding

Department for Environment
Food & Rural Affairs

Lake District
National Park

Farming in Protected Landscapes programme

We work with farmers and land managers on projects which benefit the Lake District as a place as well as its people, nature and climate.

For more information and to apply visit our website: lakedistrict.gov.uk/fipl